Riot Leader Surrenders.

Cincinnati, April 6.—After roaming about the country and through the wilds of Kentucky mountains for nearly four months, during which time scores of United States deputy sheriffs and several companies of soldiers had searched in vain for him, Berry Simpson, alleged leader of the rioters at Stearns, Ky., surrendered in Covington, Monday. He had been in Old Mexico and Denver. Simpson led the coal mine strike at Stearns on Christmas day in which battle ensued with United States deputy marshals and Deputy Mullins was killed. They had violated a restraining order of Judge Cochran of the federal court, it was charged.

Little Change in Wool.

Boston, April 6.—There was little change in the local wool situation during the last week. Business continues quiet. Fresh transfers were few and small lots and operations in foreign wool has fallen off. Values hold firm in all lines, fine staple territory being worth 65 cents and clothing territory 60 cents, cleaned. Trading in fleece wools is slow, while scoured wools are in demand with prices firm.

American Horse Wins

Nottingham, Eng., April 6.—The Little John place of 200 sovereigns for two year olds, distance four furlongs, was won by H. P. Whitney's Overlight, ridden by J. H. Martin. Salvo was second and Dove Cot third. Twenty-five horses started.

Overlight's victory was the first success this season of American horses.

London Abandons World Cruise. Honolulu, April 6.—It is reported here that Jack London, the novelist, will sell his sloop, the Snark, with which he planned to circumnavigate the globe at Sydney and return to San Francisco.

ADDITIONAL LOCAL NEWS.

There will be a special communication of Chapman Lodge No. 394, P. M. A. M. tonight at 8 o'clock. Work in the third degree.

Mrs. W. H. McGowan and two children are planning to leave the city within a day or so to make their future home at Denver. They have many friends in Las Vegas.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet at the home of Mrs. H. C. Smith, 904 Fourth street, this evening. There is business of importance to be transacted.

Owing to the great demand for seats for "The Burgomaster," which will appear at the Duncan opera house on Tuesday evening, April 13th, the advance sale of seats will be put on sale Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Captain S. J. Willson, in charge of the Salvation Army post in this city, who in company with his 8-year old son, was run down by Adlon's automobile on Sixth street yesterday afternoon, was quite badly hurt, but will recover. His knee cap was badly injured, a shoulder dislocated and two ribs broken and he is threatened with pneumonia. The young lad was not badly hurt, but is very nervous.

The Sells-Floto show left late last night for Santa Fe, after giving two performances here. The big attraction did not do a very big business here on account of the high wind and bitter cold evening. The elephants were frightened by the wind and it was thought not safe to exhibit any of the wild animals on account of their terror. The programs both afternoon and night were exceptionally good.

The April number of "The Earth," the Santa Fe industrial magazine, is devoted principally to the opportunities offered by the Panhandle of Texas and the Gulf Coast. It is handsomely illustrated, especially with some striking views of Galveston, the "Second Seaport of the World," and one of the most important commercial centers reached by the Santa Fe railway.

Both fire companies made excellent runs to the blaze on Railroad avenue last night, but it is to be regretted that friction arose which threatens the good understanding existing between the two departments. It is alleged that one of the members of the East side company disconnected the hose of E. Romero Hose company from a plug and refused to allow the firemen to use the water. It is claimed to have been a mistake and the matter is being investigated.

Considerable talk has been occasioned in this city by the disappearance yesterday of E. Alonso Farthington, who for three years has been employed as a marker and sorter at the Las Vegas steam laundry. He was to have been united in marriage last night to Miss Gladys Douglass, and they had their house already furnished. The groom had taken his clothes to the tailor and seemed to have made every preparation for the ceremony. It is reported that he left debts aggregating about $300. Some of his friends fear that there may have been foul play. The young couple had planned to leave on the limited this morning for a honeymoon trip to Los Angeles and San Francisco.

Los Angeles Grand Jury Convenes.

Los Angeles, April 6.—The grand jury which is inquiring into the stories of municipal graft, reconvened yesterday after ten days' recess. If Nick Oswald does not appear, it is said, that the inquiry will end soon. A thousand dollars reward is offered for information that would lead to his apprehension.
